

BIG GAME HUNT FOR TEDDY ABROAD

Tells German Ambassador That He Will Visit The Fatherland.

WILL BE AT END OF TERM.

THE PRESIDENT HAS ALREADY DRAINED CONGRESSIONAL LIBRARY OF BOOKS PERTAINING TO HUNTING IN EUROPE.

Washington, Dec. 14.—"Specky, when I get off the job I am going over and see your boss."

Utilizing the nickname of affectionate comradeship and without being guilty of lese majesty in reverting to virile Americanism in his talk, the president so conveyed to Speck von Sternberg, the German ambassador, his intention of visiting Germany after he retired from the presidency, and seeing Emperor William.

While the president has considered many things to engage his strenuous activity when he retires from the White house, it is possible to state at the outset what he will not do, and it may be stated with certainty that he will not be a candidate for election to the Senate to succeed Senator Thomas Collier Platt. He has no desire to assume legislative responsibilities so soon after he is relieved of the obligation of the presidency. The matters he most seriously considers taken in order of preference are:

1. To write a history of his administration.

2. A big game hunt that would take him to India, Africa and possibly Alaska.

3. A visit to England and all the continental capitals, with the possibility of a trip around the world, stopping in the Philippines.

When the bear hunters gathered around the board in the White House the other night tales of mighty deeds in the hunting field were related, and, as usual, the President was the foremost in talking of "big kills."

Those who heard him were astounded at his comprehensive knowledge and mastery of minute details of big game hunting in Africa and India. It was learned today that the president has recently drained the congressional library of all books dealing with big game hunting in Alaska, Africa and India, as well as other parts of the world.

THE WEATHER WAS BAD

As a result, people who were out last evening or early this morning picked their way along as cautiously as though they were walking on a tight-rope. Notwithstanding the general caution displayed there were numerous hard falls.

MORPHEUS DIRECTED MAN TO BIG FORTUNE

Found a Big Bunch of Soiled Certificates.

ALL IN A POCKET BOOK.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 14.—A remarkable case of a dream revealing the whereabouts of lost wealth came to light at Aberdeen, S. D., this morning when Charles Cassie visited a local bank with a bunch of soiled certificates and told the story of how he had received several thousand dollars he lost about three months ago.

Cassie is a Scot and industrialist. For a long time he had been saving up his money with the object of taking a trip to Scotland. Last August he went to work digging trenches for a firm engaged in installing a storm sewer. One day he missed his pocket book, containing the bank certificates and $19 in currency. He reported the matter to the police and an investigation was conducted, but without success. Last night Cassie retired, worn out, and dreamed that he went to a point west of the Milwaukee freight house and there he found his pocket book. This morning he went to the sport and began looking about the dirt in one of the trenches. In a few minutes he kicked up his pocketbook, and on opening it found the contents intact, but badly discolored. He leaves tonight for Scotland, where he will spend the winter.

THAW TRIALS ARE COSTLY TO STATE

New York Board Allows Appropriation of $15,000.

MUCH ALREADY SPENT.

New York, Dec. 14.—The Thaw trial is an expensive one, as developed today, when an extra appropriation of $15,000 was allowed by the board of equity. District Attorney Jerome has conferred with his experts with the view of cutting down expenses, but little could be done.

"Already $24,000 has been spent for experts. It is an outrage, but it can't be helped," added the controller. "The experts were paid at the rate of $100 a day, approximately $15 an hour in some cases." It was stated that the cost of the Thaw trial so far had been upward of $100,000.

WILL TEST THE BLIND TIGER LAW

Bottles of Intoxicants Seized In Eagles' Raid to Be Demolished.

LODGE TO APPEAL ORDER.

IF JUDGE FOX OF THE CIRCUIT COURT RULES, THE MATTER WILL THEN BE CARRIED TO THE SUPREME COURT.

Some day next week, Sergeant Daniel McManus of the police department, will on the order of the city court, demolish numerous bottles of whiskey, beer, wine and other kinds of booze, all of which was seized when the police a few Sundays ago raided the Eagles' club rooms.

As a result of this action, the local aerie of Eagles will appeal the order of Judge Converse of the city court to the circuit court. Before Judge Fox of the latter court the first test of the "Blind Tiger" law in this county will be made.

If the ruling of the court in this case is adverse to the Eagles, they state that an appeal will be taken to the supreme court. In the event that the case is decided against the state, it is also probable that Prosecutor Wilfred Jessup will take steps to appeal the ruling to the supreme court.

HAD THREE HUSBANDS; ALL STILL LIKE HER

Court Frees One; Others After Their Liberty.

WILL NOT PROSECUTE.

New York, December 14.—Of the three husbands she had before her twenty-first birthday, a telephone girl of Brooklyn, whose maiden name was Madeline Yates, already has had one taken away by the courts, and through the appointment of Henry M. O'Neill, of 170 Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn, as guardian ad litem for his seventeen-year-old son Edward, it was learned that proceedings will be brought to take the second from her.

Her first husband, Dr. Daniel A. Shay, of Brooklyn, consulted counsel as to how he also could have his marriage ties severed.

No ill feeling is expressed against the maid who took more than the allotted number of husbands, and none of them desires to prosecute her for bigamy.

Before her first marriage she posed for the "Girl at the Phone" pictures, used by telephone companies in advertising.

Dr. Shay was thirty-four years old, nearly twice her age, when she married him. He says he did everything possible to make her happy, but she left him. In 1900 she met Alfred Minon. They were married. A short time afterward she deserted him. He had his marriage annulled on March 19, 1904.

After this she met Edward O'Neill. They eloped to the Bronx.

INDICTED ON TWO SERIOUS CHARGES

Alva Hunt, Said to Have Committed Grand Larceny And Embezzlement.

HAS BEEN OUT ON BOND.

AFTER SELLING LUMBER, CLAIMED HE MONOPOLIZED A SMALL AMOUNT OF MONEY WHICH WAS NOT HIS.

Alvin J. Hunt has been indicted by the grand jury on two counts. The first is on a charge of grand larceny and the second is on a charge of embezzlement. Hunt was arrested by Chief Bailey in Illinois last September. Since that time he has been out on bond.

It is charged that in 1905, acting as an agent for Lydia Penland, of this county, Hunt sold a quantity of timber and logs for $5. Of this amount Hunt, it is charged, gave Mrs. Penland $24 and kept the remaining $25 for himself. In February, 1906, Hunt fled from the county and was not located by the authorities until last September.

NEGRO HINES WAS NEAR SCENE OF CRIME

So Says Witness in Markowitz Case.

HE HEARD FOUR SHOTS.

Dayton, O., Dec. 14.—In the trial of Layton Hines, charged with the murder of Abraham Cohan and Anna Markowitz, Frank Allen, the most important witness, who was found in New Orleans, testified that he had seen Hines several times in the neighborhood of McCabe park. On the evening of the tragedy, Sunday, August 4, last, Allen stated that he saw Hines standing near the little bridge in the park. "The negro said 'Howdy' to him as Allen passed and the latter replied. Some time later he heard four shots, but thought nothing of them at the time. The next morning he heard of the crime, having gone out hunting and encountered a crowd in the park from whom the information was obtained. He identified Hines as the man he saw in the park. He stated that he had been held in jail as a witness since he returned from the south. Attorney Kunkler, for the defense, attempted to shake the witness in his identification of the accused, but failed.

PRAYS TO BE SPARED UNTIL CHRISTMAS

Mother of Earl Pritchard Expects Him Then.

SHE IS NOW ON DEATH BED.

Marion, O., Dec. 14.—Lying on what is said to be her deathbed at her home at 100 Orchard street, this city, Mrs. William H. Pritchard, mother of Earl W. Pritchard, dropped from the navy because of his love for the pretty wife of a New York millionaire, knows nothing of her son's disgrace. No one dare tell her, for the shock might kill. He is her only son. Suffering from an incurable nervous disease, she is counting the days until Christmas, when she expects him to be with her.

Mr. Pritchard, the young ensign's father, is now in Indianapolis, his old home, having gone there three weeks ago to receive treatment from the family physician, Dr. Tomlin. He once suffered a partial stroke of apoplexy and feared that he was about to be stricken again. It is said young Pritchard is in Pittsburgh with a view to forming a company to manufacture a railway device invented by his father. The patent is a valuable one. It is used to place derailed cars on the tracks. The father experimented with it with success.

A PATROLMAN IS KILLED

Negro Shot Guardian of Law In Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 14.—Patrolman Sam Cannon was shot and killed Friday night in a negro district. His murderer is said to be a man named Bates, who, with another negro named Johnson, had been found loitering in a suspicious manner near the corner of Jackson and Roselane streets. Cannon had arrested Bates often of late for minor offenses. Bates and his companion fired several times, as did the policeman. One bullet from Cannon's revolver grazed Johnson's head.

THE Sunrise OF Life.

Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomachs and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathartics, powders or tablets. Give them a mild, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the small sum of 50 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is the one great remedy for you to have in the house to give children when they need it.

POWERS CASE WAS RESUMED AFTER DELAY

New Sensation When Investigation Is Ordered.

NEWSPAPER ARTICLE CAUSE

Georgetown, Ky., Dec. 14.—Owing to the illness of Attorney Franklin, the Caleb Powers trial was postponed until this morning.

Under a rule of contempt issued by Judge Morris, an investigation will be made tomorrow into the publication of an article by a Lexington paper in its issue of Thursday relative to Henry Youtsey and his wife. The publication has created a sensation in Georgetown and the signing of an apologetic retraction by the correspondent responsible for the publication, a statement from the hotel clerk and an expression of James Howard are features of the affair. Youtsey and all the newspaper correspondents have been summoned to appear as witnesses.

The rule is against Maj. C. W. Longmire and G. G. Clark, guards at the penitentiary, who are in charge of Henry Youtsey and James Howard, who are witnesses in the Powers case.

THREE TARIFF BOOKS OF OIL COMPANY MISSING

Commodity Records of Alton Cannot Be Found.

STANDARD SEES LOOPHOLE

Chicago, Dec. 14.—At a conference Friday afternoon between Judge Landis of the United States District court and the attorney concerned in the case against the Standard Oil company in which that corporation was fined $29,240,000, Attorney John S. Miller made the announcement that three commodity tariff books of the Chicago & Alton railroad, which figured in the trial were mysteriously missing.

The tariff books were offered in evidence by the Standard Oil company attorneys to show that there were in existing many other tariffs in Illinois similar to that for the acceptance of which the Standard Oil company was punished. Attorney Miller declared he had called upon the railroad officials to produce the books since the trial and that they informed him that they could not be found.

The books were excluded by Judge Landis at the trial and it is said that the defendants will use this fact in arguing for a reversal in the United States court of appeals.

At first the companion thought that Butler was merely playing a prank upon him, but he was soon convinced that Butler was very much in earnest and was very much alarmed.
